Mny Be Presented.
"The board of visitors of the Virginia Polytechnic Institute invites the presentation of any and all charges against the management of the institution," said Superintendent of Public Instruction J. D. Eggleston, Jr., a member of the board westerdy. Superintendent ber of the board, yesterday. Superin-Mr. Eggleston said that the meeting

Mr. Eggleston said that the meeting held at Blacksburg Wednesday.
"If Dr. Barringer is the wrong man for the position the board certainly ought to know it," continued Mr. Eggleston. "On the other hand, if there is nothing in the charges which have been suggested to members of the alumni, that fact ought to be demonstrated."

Mr. Eggleston that the meeting of Mr. Eggleston that the meeting of of the board will be held in Richmond, because this is the most convenient point in the State, all things consid-point in the state, all things considered. In the middle of the winter travel to Blacksburg is often unpleasant, and it is probable that members of the board will wish to be here about the time of the opening of the Legislature on other business. A copy of the resolution, as printed A copy of the resolution, as printed yesterday, will be sent to Lawrence Priddy, and he will have, says Mr. Eggleston, every opportunity to present any charges he may have to the board. If there is any light which ought to be turned on, Mr. Eggleston wants it to shine.
